THE

MARYLAND GAZETTE

Containing the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

No. 327.

WEDNESDAY, July 31, 1751.

LEGHORN, April 3.

THE laſt Advices from Corſica import, that the Differences which have happened between ſome of the Pieves in that Iſland, are like to be attended with bad Conſequences to the public Tranquility: There has been a very ſharp Rencounter between the Inhabitants of Caſſinea, aſſiſted by the People of Taragna, and the Inhabitants of the Pieve of Moriani, which ended to the Diſadvantage of the latter, who were repulſed with great Loſs. But as the Marquis de Curzay, the French General, is gone to make Enquiry on the Spot into the Cauſes of this Fray, it is hoped he will find Means to reconcile the Combatants.

Hamburgh, April 23. The laſt Letters from Peterſburg adviſe, that the Ruſſian Troops that are in Garriſon in Ingermania, and the neighbouring Provinces, had received Orders to quit their Quarters, and form ſeveral Encampments.

Hague, April 25. They write from Bergen op Zoom, that the Ruins of that Place are conſiderably repaired, and it is reckoned, that at leaſt a third Part of the Houſes will be rebuilt this Summer, and the whole in three Years Time. The Church and Tower will ſoon be rebuilt, and the Fortifications are alſo repairing with all imaginable Diſpatch.

Peterſburg, April 9. The River Neva, which has been ſhut up for a conſiderable Time paſt with Ice, is now open again; whereupon Orders have been ſent to Cronſtradt, for all Officers and Sailors belonging to her Imperial Majeſty's Squadron in that Port, to repair immediately on board their reſpective Ships, on Pain of ſevere Puniſhment.

Genoa, April 14. As the Means which the Government have made Uſe of for eſtabliſhing the Credit of the Bank of St. George, have not as yet had their deſired Effect, their Bills being ſtill at about 25 per Cent. Diſcount, 'tis ſaid that a Duty of 10 per Cent. upon all Penſions, will be added to the Duties already granted in Favour of that Bank. 'Tis generally reported here, that the Grand Maſter of Malta, has at laſt conſented to the ſetting at Liberty the famous Baſhaw of Rhodes, and that, in Conſequence thereof, he embarked on board a French Veſſel for Conſtantinople.

Cracow, April 16. The laſt Letters from Podolia, and other Places bring a Confirmation of the Military Preparations making by the Turks on the Frontiers of the Ukrain and Tartary, as alſo in divers Parts of the Ottoman Territories. Troops arrive there ſucceſſively from different Quarters, and in greater Numbers than we firſt imagined. Their Magazines are conſiderable, and large Quantities of Proviſions and Warlike Stores are daily brought into them.

Hamburgh, April 27. According to private Letters from Stockholm, the Swediſh Court is come to a Reſolution to repair the Fortifications of all the Towns in Finland, and to erect a new Fortreſs in the Eaſtern Part of that Province.

Paris, April 30. A Treaty of Commerce between this Crown and Pruſſia is as good as concluded, and 'tis pretended it will differ but very little from the Treaties we have made with the Daniſh and Swediſh Courts.

Vienna, April 24. By the Liſt of the Empreſs's Forces juſt publiſhed, it appears, that they actually conſiſt of 56 Regiments of Infantry, 18 of Cuiraſſiers, 13 of Dragoons, and 10 of Huſſars; beſides four Regiments of Carlſtadians and two of Waraſdins, twelve Troops of Huſſars on the Repartition of Hungary, three Regiments of Sclavonians, and one Regiment of Huſſars on the Repartition of the County of Sirmia: Making in all about 170,000 Men.

We are aſſured that the Pope has granted an Indulto, authorizing her Imperial Majeſty to levy the Tenth of all Eccleſiaſtic Revenues in the Hereditary Provinces.

Genoa, April 20. The Maſter of a French Ship lately arrived from the Coaſt of Provence reports, that on the 12th Inſtant Orders came from Court to Toulon to ſend out forthwith the Triton of 64 Guns, and the Gracious Frigate of 24 Guns; but their Deſtination is not known, as the Captains of them are not to open their Orders till they get into a certain Latitude.

Other Advices from Toulon inform us, that they have lately launched an 80 Gun Ship, and called her the Thunderer: They continue building with all poſſible Diligence; the Ships actually on the Stocks are called the Redoubtable and the Warrior of 74 Guns each, the Lion and the Sage of 64, the Roſe Frigate of 36, the Serpent and the Cunning Xebeques of 18 and 20 Guns. They receive now and then large Quantities of Timber and other Naval Stores at Toulon, ſo that we may infer the Court deſigns to have a ſtrong Fleet in the Mediterranean.

Liſbon, April 8. Some malicious Wags having of late taken it into their Heads to hang up Horns at the Doors and Windows of married People, whereby many an honeſt Couple have been greatly diſturbed in Mind, the Government has iſſued Orders for ſuppreſſing this wicked Practice, which was got to ſuch a Height, that in ſome Quarters of the City almoſt every Houſe Keeper found himſelf honoured, when he opened his Door in the Morning, with theſe ludicrous Trophies. The Tribunal of Diſcembargo de Paco has ordered Men to patrole the Streets every Night, to ſeize ſuch as may be taken in the Fact. Several Perſons, ſuſpected of having been at this Sport, have already been taken into Cuſtody.

Madrid, April 20. Our Troops are in Motion in divers Provinces, but 'tis only in order to change the Garriſons; nor is there any Foundation in the Report, that divers Regiments had received Orders to march to the Sea Coaſts and embark. It is indeed true, that we continue to levy Seamen for the Ships lately built in divers Ports of this Kingdom; and 'tis ſtill reported that the Court will ſend out a powerful Squadron.

We hear from Malaga, that the Scarcity of Corn and other Proviſions in that Neighbourhood has produced malignant Fevers, which daily carry off abundance of People.

Hamburgh, April 23. Letters from Peterſburg confirm, that ſeveral Foreign Generals, who ſollicited their Diſmiſſion, have obtained their Requeſt, it being the Empreſs's Intention to leave them free to ſtay or go. Thoſe Letters add, that Count Douglaſs, Lieutenant General, who is deſcended from a Swediſh Family ſettled in Ethonia, has likewiſe obtained his Diſmiſſion from the Ruſſian Service.

Paris May 3. The King has received a Letter from the King of Sweden, whereby that Prince aſſures his Majeſty, that being deſirous to follow the Example of his Predeceſſors, in cultivating the Alliances that have ſo long ſubſiſted between the Crowns of Sweden and France, he will perform in all Points the Engagements contracted in the Treaties between the late King and his Majeſty, and make it his Study and Delight to cement this mutual Friendſhip, for the reciprocal Advantage of the two Kingdoms and their reſpective Subjects. A Courier has ſince been diſpatched to Stockholm with his Majeſty's Anſwer, importing, That the Diſpoſitions he is in, with reſpect to the Intereſt of Sweden, correſpond exactly with the Sentiments of the new King: That there is nothing he deſires more earneſtly than to give him Proofs thereof, and to ſee the antient Treaties between the two Crowns renewed and confirmed.

LONDON

LONDON.

Extract of a Letter from Petersburg, April 13, N. S.

'The Arrival of three young Ladies, brought up to Town under an Escorte, makes a great Noise here, on account of the Singularity of the Case, which is not only extraordinary, but unprecedented.

Those Ladies, who are the Daughters of Count Douglass, Lieutenant General, to whom the Empress had just granted a Dismission from her Service, applied to the Governor of Revel, where they resided, praying him to put them under Arrest; alleging that they had some important Things to communicate to her Imperial Majesty against their Father, which were of a treasonable Nature. The Governor did all he could to divert them from so unnatural a Design: He shewed them the Danger to which they exposed themselves and all their Family. Among other Things he represented to them, that according to the Laws of the Empire, the Party that impeaches any one of a capital Crime, must undergo the Rack three Times before the Person accused can be put to the Torture: But his Exhortations were fruitless; the three Ladies persisted in their Resolution, and even threatened the Governor with an Information against himself, if he any longer delayed to grant their Request; so that he was forced to comply and send them hither.

As soon as Count Douglass heard of the shocking Proceeding of his Daughters, he immediately posted up to Town, in order to prevent, if possible, the terrible Consequences of it. Several Persons, who interest themselves in this Affair, have made Representations to the Empress about it, urging in particular a Law of the Emperor Peter the Great, which enacts, That if any Children be found so void of Duty and natural Affection, as to impeach their Parents, their Accusation shall not only be rejected, but they shall be moreover severely punished, and then sent back to their Parents, &c.

We don't yet know what Effect these Representations have had, but we are assured that the Empress has resolved to have those Ladies examined in her Presence: In the mean while Count Douglass is put under Arrest. It is said his three Daughters have desired to be admitted to embrace the Greek Religion. Our Sea and Land Officers are setting out successively for their respective Posts. The Fleet at Cronstadt consists of 35 Ships of the Line, and Frigates; and part of the Gallies are ordered to be equipped and victualled for three Months. Divers Orders of a private Nature have been sent to Revel, and other Cities, in Consequence of the Discoveries made by Count Douglass's Daughters.'

April 25. Last Monday the following most extraordinary Affair happened at Tring in Hertfordshire; some of the Country People having entertained an Opinion that an old Man and Woman in that Town were Witches, on Account of several Cattle dying of the present Contagion, great Numbers assembled, some on Horseback and others on Foot, and went in a Body and proclaimed them as such, in three different Market Towns; and about four in the Afternoon returned to Tring, and demanded the supposed Witches, whom the Inhabitants had sent to the Workhouse for Security, which the enraged Populace being informed of, went thither, and being refused Admittance, they pulled down the greatest Part of the Workhouse, and a House adjacent; but the Master, in the mean while, having conveyed them to the Vestry of the Church, they afterwards assembled there, obliging the Master of the Workhouse to go with them; they took them out by Violence, and carried them two Miles from the Town, where they bound the poor old Woman, Hands and Feet, and after beating her in a cruel and barbarous Manner, threw her into a Pond of Water, where she perished; the old Man was likewise treated in the same Manner, but fortunately happened to survive their Cruelty. Several Persons are since taken and committed to Custody, for so inhuman a Proceeding, and an Enquiry is ordered to be made by Mr. Atkinson, Coroner of the County, into the Affair, and a Jury of Gentlemen summoned to attend at Tring on the Occasion.

May 8. Yesterday his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland attended the Call of the House of Lords, when 158 Lords were present; and it is said that his Royal Highness the Duke, the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord Chancellor, Lord President of the Council, Lord Privy Seal, the two Secretaries of State, the Earl of Harcourt, and the Master of the Rolls, are appointed as Regents to the Prince, provided his Majesty dies in his Minority.

ANNAPOLIS.

On Monday last Week, a Number of Men went out from Frederick Town in Frederick County, in search of some Robbers, who had stole some Things from Town the Day before, and were supposed to be in their neighbouring Woods; and in their search found a large Bay Horse tied to a Bush, who had just been fed with Oats and was in good Order; and just by him there lay three Saddles, and hard by, on a Bush, hung a loaded Pistol: The Horse, Saddles and Pistol they took with them, but could not find the Men. As we have not heard much of late, of those Robbers who infested the Neighbourhood of this City about a Fortnight ago, we were in hopes that they had either turn'd honest, left off Business, or gone further off; which last now seems most probable, as the Description of the Horse taken in Frederick County, gives great Reason to think it is the same which was stole from this Place belonging to Mr. Raitt.
